DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-2 and 4-6, drawn to methods for making and amplifying transcription products, classified in class 435, subclass 91.2.
- II. Claim 3, drawn to a method for detecting an analyte in or from a sample comprising obtaining an analyte-binding substance—oligonucleotide, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.

2. The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are directed to related processes. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the Group I method claims for making and amplifying transcription products do not overlap the scope of Group II method claims for detecting an analyte and vice versa, as evidenced by these distinct functions. Invention I functions to yields transcription products, whereas Invention II functions to yield analytical results, that is, whether an analyte is present in a sample or not. Additionally, Inventions I and II are not obvious variants of each other based on the exclusive use in Invention II of a distinct material, the analytebinding substance-oligonucleotide. Lastly, Invention I and II have different functions as noted above. Thus, by virtue of the different functions of and materials used in the inventions of Group I and II, these related inventions are distinct.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Art Unit: 1637

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
